

I am what I am

J 106

Don't touch me, I'm a woman who feels Don't fuck me, you're not real Don't laugh, cause I'm proud of myself Don't touch me, I'm strong enough to be

REF:

I am, what I am, what I am, don't come into my life again
I am, what I am, what I am, don't come into my life again, again

Never again, you will feel me so close never again you'll see me naked, I know yes I'm strong enough to talk about it you'll never do it again, with some other child

REF:

I am, what I am, what I am, don't come into my life again
I am, what I am, what I am, don't come into my life again, again

Bridge:

I will never be the same as before I change my life, do what I want, more and more

You'll never be happy, when you do things like that you can never be proud of yourself, cause you're feeling so bad It's a shame that you can't change anything you did what happend is past, and will always stay with you
