Set me free, it hurts in me
now it's hard to work with me and realise, it hurts in me

It hurts in me, I realise that I can sing and paint and listen to the words that you wanna say and I can dance and take pictures from the world
I don't wait anymore, no no no, I got to go, I got to go, (I got to go)

It hurts in me, because I need, more time to walk and moving step by step. I need time to growing up and find the secrets deep in me.
I don't wait anymore, no no no, I got to go, I got to go, (I got to go)
